

ABOUT THE TOURNAMENTS

Each March, as the "Road to the NCAA Final Four" veers to a distant city, New York State's best high school basketball teams set off on a more familiar, down home path - "The Road to Glens Falls."

When high school basketball players go into the gym in November, the one city in the state on their minds is Glens Falls. "If we practice and play hard as a team we'll make it to Glens Falls for the State Championships!"
